SAVING LIVES AT SEA

What is the Roberts Bank Lifeboat Station - Delta Society?

The Roberts Bank Lifeboat Station-Delta Society is a volunteer non-profit provincial registered charitable marine Search and Rescue organization operating from Ladner Harbour and Deltaport.

Our professionally trained volunteer crew is made up of locals from Delta that are dedicated to saving lives and property in and around the Delta coastal region and shoreline. We are on call 24 hours a day, 365 days a year and available to respond within 30 minutes.

The Roberts Bank Lifeboat Station-Delta Society is responsible for the operations and maintenance of the Roberts Bank Lifeboat.

The Roberts Bank Lifeboat provides life-saving and other marine services that are required for Vancouver Island ferries, deep sea ships, tugs, pleasure craft, fishing boats, emergency services and hundreds of small and commercial aircraft flying over the Georgia Strait on daily basis.

We are here for you... are you here for us?

What we need from you...

We rely on private and corporate donations to pay for equipment, fuel, medical supplies and the operations of the Lifeboat. Donations are our lifeblood. If you are a boater or are concerned about the safety of those at sea please give generously—we rely on your support! Tax receipts are available for a donation of $25 or more.

Volunteers are needed for all types of activities such as fund-raising, vessel maintenance and lifeboat crew.
